

Online Security Agreement Between Children and Parents

I don't want to hide things from my parents because if I have to hide something then it's wrong. I don't want to hide anything from my parents because hiding is the same as lying.

1. I agree to not give out personal information such as: my address, telephone number, parents' work address/telephone number, or the name and location of my school without my parent's permission.
2. If I am confronted with any information that I feel uncomfortable with I will tell my parents right away.
3. I will never agree to get together with someone I "meet" online without first checking with my parents.
4. I will never post or send a person my picture or anything else without first checking with my parents.
5. I will not respond to any messages that are mean or in any way make me feel uncomfortable. It is not my fault if I get a message like that. If I do I will tell my parents right away so that they can contact the service provider (ISP).
6. I will talk with my parents and set up rules for going online. We will decide when and what time of day that I can be online, the length of time I can be online and safe places for me to visit. I will not access other areas or break these rules. I will ask permission before accessing other websites without my parent's permission.
7. I will not give out my Internet passwords to anyone (even my best friends) other than my parents.
8. I will check with my parents before downloading or installing software or doing anything that could possibly hurt our computer or jeopardize my family's privacy.
9. I will be a good Internet citizen. I will not do anything that hurts other people or do anything that is against the law.
10. I will help my parents to have fun and learn things online, and teach them things about the Internet, computers and other technology.

In signing this Online Security Agreement, I know that my parents have my best interests at heart and they love me and I love them. I don't want to do anything that would cause grief, sorrow, or pain to others, especially my parents.
